

Swirls

The Swirl is a popular design that can be done with many variations. The basic technique is simple. Press down at center of fabric and twist until all fabric is swirled into a flat pancake shape. Bind with big rubber bands crossing them in center so shape is divided into wedges. This design can be varied in many ways depending on how colors are applied to wedges.

Rainbow Swirl - Fuchsia, Yellow and Turquoise dye

1. Place shirt flat and pinch a bit of fabric at center. Center is on a line with bottom of armholes, not at actual center of shirt.

2. Pressing down, wind shirt into a flat swirl. Split folds at outside edges of design.

3. Place 3 rubber bands crossing in center.

4. After soaking in fixer, apply Yellow dye on 3 sections.

5. Apply Fuchsia dye on 3 sections overlapping one section of Yellow.

6. Apply Turquoise dye on one section of Fuchsia, one White section and one Yellow section. Turn shirt over and dye reverse side in same manner.

Rainbow with Black Swirl

Fuchsia, Yellow, Turquoise and Black dye following rainbow instructions. Apply Black just to edges of folds over the Rainbow colors on the shirt.
